

The worst thing you can do to our democracy is silence our freedom of the press by relaxing restrictions on ownership. First we quit educating our populace, then we keep them in the dark. Where is the justification for this action?